OF THE
NINETY-SECOND SESSION
OF THE
MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE
Methodist Episcopal Church, South, HELD AT
GLOSTER, MISSISSIPPI,
DECEMBER 13th to 18th,
1905.

Edited by A. F. WATKINS and H. M. ELLIS.

TUCKER PRINTING HOUSE, JACKSON, MISS.

STANDING RULES OF THE Mississippi Conference.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Presiding Elders are instructed to meet in advance of the first morning session of the Conference, and have the Standing Committees ready for nomination at the opening of the Conference.—Journal 1882, page 10.

CONFERENCE SACRAMENTAL SERVICE.

At future sessions of the Conference it shall be the standing order to hold the Conference Sacramental service on Wednesday evening.—Journal 1888, page 26.

CONFERENCE MEMORIAL SERVICE.

It shall hereafter be the order of this Conference to hold the Memorial service on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.—Journal 1888, page 26.

CENSURE FOR NOT APPEARING FOR EXAMINATION.

It is cause for censure for any preacher to fail, without good reason, to appear before the committees for examination.—Journal 1891, page 37.

PASTORS AND COLLECTIONS.

Pastors are instructed to pro rate all collections taken on assessments, so as not to discriminate against one cause and in favor of another.—Journal 1898, page 18.

LAY MEMBERSHIP IN THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

The lay membership in the District Conferences shall consist of three (3) delegates, to be elected by the Quarterly Conference of each pastoral charge in the district.—Journal 1901, page 11.

MISSISSIPPI ORPHAN'S HOME.

Each pastor is required to devote one Sunday in each year to the interests of the Orphan's Homé, and to promptly forward amounts contributed to the Treasurer of the Home.—Journal 1902, page 40.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE PREACHING SERVICES.

During Conference sessions one hour each day shall be given to the preaching of the Gospel.—Journal 1902, page 41.

J. W. Sandell's name was called and after he reported, his name, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Superannuate Relation.

Question Twenty was resumed and the following were passed in examination of character, and made their reports: J. N. Ware, L. Carley, H. P. Lewis, P. H. Howse.

The name of M. J. Miller was called, and through his Presiding Elder, he asked to be located and the request was granted.

Question Twenty was resumed and the following were passed in examination of character and made their reports: W. W. Simmons, I. W. Cooper, H. G. Hawkins, B. F. Jones, C. W. Crisler, A. D. Miller, F. A. Grimes, W. H. Saunders, W. G. Forsyth, C. N. Guice, R. E. Rutledge, H. B. Watkins, W. D. Dominick, C. A. Powell.

The report of the Committee on District Conference Records was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

The Sea Shore and Natchez Records are not well kept. The matter is too badly crowded on the pages, and the sentences run into each other.

In the Brookhaven Record, the Secretary failed to put the date on the margin of the pages; there are also some errors in spelling. Otherwise it is neatly and well kept.

The Forest Record is well kept.

The Meridian Record is a model—showing system and care.

The Vicksburg Record is in good shape, but lacks the marginal index.

The Jackson Record was not placed in the hands of the Committee.

We suggest that all the District Conference Secretaries adopt the system of marginal indexing in recording the proceedings of the District Conferences.

Respectfully submitted,

C. L. RAY, Chairman.

Report No. 1 of the Committee on Memorials to the General Conference was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 1

OF THE

COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

I. We cannot concur in the Memorial offered by Rev. R. B. Downer and W. J. Ferguson relative to an utterance by the General Conference on the doctrine of entire sanctification, because we do not believe it to be within the province of the General Conference to make any such utterance.

II. Nor can we concur in the Memorial of Bros. Downer and Ferguson relative to the use of tobacco. While we believe that no preacher should use tobacco, and your Committee heartily approves the action relative to this matter taken by this Conference at its session in 1900, yet we do not think that legislation by the General Conference on the matter would be wise.

III. Your Committee recommends concurrence in the Memorial relative to increased lay representation in the Annual Conference offered by Revs. A. F. Watkins and Robert Selby, as follows:

A MEMORIAL.

WHEREAS, The lay delegates in our Conference are the special representatives of the body of the membership of the Church and,

WHEREAS, There appears no special reason for the present basis of representation, therefore,

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to so change the basis of lay representation in our Annual Conferences that each Presiding Elder's district shall be represented in the Annual Conference by one layman for each one thousand lay members, provided that for a fraction of three-fourths, there may be one additional representative, and provided, further, that no district shall have less than four representatives; and provided, finally, that said representation may consist of local preachers in a proportion not greater than one in four.

A. F. WATKINS,
ROBERT SELBY.

IV. In the Memorial presented by the Committee appointed by the last Conference relative to the correlation, unifying and improving our Conference and other Church newspapers, your Committee concurs, and recommends its adoption, as follows:

A MEMORIAL.

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South:

The Mississippi Annual Conference in annual session assembled, hereby respectfully memorializes the General Conference to institute such measures and undertake such legislation as may be found necessary to secure the consolidation of our official newspapers, Connectional and Conference, into such units as will correspond with the resources and obtainable patronage of our people, and as will result in the best literary measure and quality and the highest efficiency in service. Your memorialists would also ask that the General Conference so divide and district the patronizing territory of such consolidated newspapers as to fix their fields of circulation, and to protect them from hurtful competition. Also that the General Conference assume control of, or else give directions for the editorial management of all our official publications.

The action asked for in this memorial is not to be understood as affecting the status or connectional character of the Christian Advocate, the General Conference organ, published at Nashville, Tennessee.

(Signed,)

H. M. DUBOSE,
A. F. WATKINS,
T. W. ADAMS.

W.M. H. LAPRADE, Chairman.
H. WALTER FEATHERSTUN, Secretary.

The report was adopted item by item, and then adopted as a whole.

The report of the Committee on Conference Relations was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

Your Committee on Conference Relations would report that we have had submitted for our consideration the following names for the Superannuate Relation: R. A. Sibley, J. H. Evans, D. G. W. Ellis, R. B. Downer, H. R. Caldwell, H. D. Howell, N. B. Young, P. Howard, W. G. Backus, Ira B. Robertson, R. L. Phillips, W. W. Hurst, L. J. Jones, R. D. Norsworthy, J. A. B. Jones, J. W. Brown, W. W. Cammack, G. R. Ellis and J. W. Sandell:

For Supernumerary Relation the names: W. L. C. Hunnicutt, J. W. McLaurin and J. G. Cammack.

We recommend that these brethren be placed in the relations suggested.

R. S. GALE, Chairman.

T. B. HOLLOMAN, Secretary.

Question Seventeen was called: "Who are supernumerary?"
Answer: W. L. C. Hunnicutt, J. W. McLaurin, J. G. Cammack.

Question Eighteen was called: "Who are Superannuated?"
Answer: R. A. Sibley, J. H. Evans, D. G. W. Ellis, R. B. Downer, H. R. Caldwell, H. D. Howell, N. B. Young, P. Howard, W. G. Backus, Ira B. Robertson, R. L. Phillips, W. W. Hurst, L. J. Jones, J. W. Brown, W. W. Commack, G. R. Ellis, J. W. Sandell.

Report No. 1 of the Board of Education was read, and, on motion, adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 1.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education has considered the matter referred to us involving certain letters that passed between Revs. N. B. Harmon and M. L. Burton, of this Conference, and a Professor in the Vanderbilt University, and beg leave to say that we believe this is a matter with which this Conference has nothing to do. If the brethren feel that they have any just ground for complaint against any officer of the Vanderbilt University, they should in our judgment, refer the matter to the Board of Trust of that institution.

W. H. HUNTLEY, Chairman.
ROBERT SELBY, Secretary.

A report of the Mississippi Orphans' Home was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF MISSISSIPPI ORPHANS' HOME.

To the Mississippi Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Board of Directors of the Mississippi Orphans' Home, beg leave to make the following report for the year 1905:

In obedience to your direction, a meeting was held in Jackson, Miss., January 19, to canvass the question of a suitable site in or near the city of Jackson, on which to erect an Orphanage building to take the place of the one burned on July 11, 1904, at Water Valley, Miss. After canvassing the properties offered, the Board was unanimous in selecting, if available, a plot of ground lying north of Millsaps College, belonging to Major R. W. Millsaps. In discussing the value of the property, and whether it could be purchased, he very kindly stated that it could be gotten, provided it was thought the best place for the building. That point being settled in favor of the plot, Major Millsaps donated twenty (20) acres, valued at approximately $20,000.00, to be used and disposed of for the benefit of the orphan children, with the understanding that the property should never be diverted from the original purpose of the donation, and can only be sold after the Directors have given notice for twelve months preceding the sessions of the Mississippi and North Mississippi Conferences, and the sale confirmed by at least three-fourths majority of each Conference, and in case of sale, the proceeds must be re-invested for the continuance of the orphanage work, and not otherwise.

A building Committee was appointed, plans adopted, and contract let, for the erection of a building to cost about $35,000.00. Parties who have seen the plan and building and are in position to judge, pronounce the construction thoroughly good and the arrangements most convenient. The building was to have been completed by November 1st. Hinderances caused by the quarantine, and failure to get material and workmen, have delayed the work till now we will not be able to get in before early spring, when we hope to have the building thoroughly equipped and finished for the great work committed to our care.

Rev. Q. A. Oats was elected Agent and Manager, and took charge on Dec. 15, 1904. His administration has been most satisfactory. The internal management of the Home has been in many respects ideal. The credit for this is largely due to his excellent wife, who has untiringly given her time and attention to the work.

Since our last report, 64 children have been received into the Home, 32 adopted, 30 taken out by guardians, and 4 have died, leaving on November 23, in the Home, 96 children.

We are yet domiciled at Water Valley, in Hamilton College. We desire to express our appreciation to the Trustees of that property for kindly consideration, in granting us the use of the property at a nominal rental.

On May 24, the treasurer, M. L. Burton, reported as follows, viz:

Amount cash on hand	$17,830.54
Interest	393.25
Received from the Conferences.....	4,895.93

Making a total of	$23,119.72
Expended from Jan. 19 to May 24.....	3,482.61

Leaving a balance of	$19,637.11

This financial report covers a period of five months, as at last Annual Conference, report was made up to Conference meeting.

We respectfully ask that you elect successors to Rev. H. M. Ellis and R. L. Bennett, Trustees, whose terms expire this year.

With an earnest solicitude for the sympathy and prayers of the friends of the orphans of Mississippi, we beg to remain,

Respectfully,

J. H. SHERARD,

For Board of Directors

Q. A. Oats, Manager of the Orphans' Home, addressed the Conference.

Resolutions of appreciation of the gift of Major R. W. Millsaps, of the property valued at $20,000 for the Orphans' Home was adopted as follows:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Mississippi Annual Conference, do hereby express our hearty and sincere appreciation of the most generous donation of Major R. W. Millsaps of property, valued at $20,000.00, for the benefit of our Orphans' Home.

(Signed)

The report of the Committee on Publishing Interests was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Conference:

After reviewing such statements as the House has placed in our hands and canvassing the periodical literature of the Church, we, your Committee, beg to submit the following report:

THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

The latest statement published by the House touching the business of that institution shows a gratifying increase in the sales made, as also a handsome increase in the net gain over the net gain for the corresponding term next preceding.

This statement shows the capital of our Publishing House to be nearly one million dollars. The rapid succession in which a number of volumes of high character as to subject matter, and of exquisite mechanical workmanship, have come from the press, should be a matter of pride to the whole Church. We call especial attention to the new Hymnal adopted by the Joint Commission for the M. E. Church and the M. E. Church, South. We believe this Hymnal as published by our House has a high degree of merit over any collection of hymns hitherto in use in the Church, and we urge that all our churches and people supply themselves with these Hymnals as speedily as possible.

Rev. G. W. Bachman, Colporter for the Mississippi and North Mississippi Conferences, reports considerable business done within our Conference, notwithstanding serious interruption in his work incident to the recent quarantines prevailing in the State, and to affliction in his family. We commend Brother Bachman and his work to our people.

THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

We note with pride the recent improvement in the mechanical form and appearance of our General Organ, making it to compare favorably with any periodical of its class. We would gladly speed the day in which this paper shall fill its place in every Methodist home throughout our Conference, and throughout the entire connection.

THE METHODIST REVIEW.

The Methodist Review maintains its wonted high degree of excellency as the exponent of the literary, scientific and religious thought of our times. We recommend this periodical to all our pastors, especially to the young men, and to the thinking men of the laity.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE.

Our Sunday School editor is supplying the Church with a very high class of periodical literature, admirably adapted to the various grades, from the Bible class with the Magazine as a help, down to the simpler needs of the little people. For comprehensiveness and scholarly exposition of the lessons the Magazine is worthy of special mention. The Children's Visitor fills a place all its own in the reading matter of our children.

THE NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

We recognize the New Orleans Christian Advocate as the official organ of the Conference. With limited means and circumscribed territory, it is not to be expected that this paper should compare favorably with our great general organ in point of outward attractiveness or of literary merit. Nevertheless it occupies its own sphere and is more specifically, than is our Advocate at Nashville, our medium of interchange in church affairs.

We believe that Doctor Boswell is doing everything in his power to conserve the highest interests of the Church, and tender to him our co-operation and sympathy in the work of increasing the circulation of the paper. We offer the following nominations as our representatives on the Joint Board of Publication for the New Orleans Christian Advocate: T. W. Adams, W. B. Lewis and W. H. Huntley.

THE EPWORTH ERA.

The large increase in the circulation of the Epworth Era, the official organ of the Epworth League, is cause for great gratification to the whole Church as well as to our Conference. Under the successful leadership of Dr. H. M. DuBose, editor, this paper has been enlarged and converted into a magazine of great beauty and attractiveness. We congratulate Doctor DuBose on his phenomenal success in undertaking to supply the young life of the Church with a sound, wholesome and attractive literature. We bespeak for the Era a place in the homes of all our people.

C. F. EMERY, Chairman,
JOHN A. MOORE, Secretary,
For the Committee.

H. M. DuBose, Editor of the Epworth Era and Secretary of the Epworth League, addressed the Conference.

The report of the Committee on Temperance was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to make the following report:

We find ground for gratitude to God in the strength of the temperance cause among our people, which is manifested in the general denunciation of the flagrant violations and evasions of the law in selling intoxicating liquors in prohibition territory within our State, and in the constant and persistent effort to abolish the licensed saloon where it still exists.

Resolved, That we take this method of reasserting our position as a body on this question, as opposing uncompromisingly the liquor traffic in every form; and we urge the use of every legitimate means for its suppression.

Resolved, further, That we lament the fact that the shipping of "C. O. D." liquors into prohibition territory within our State has become a blatant curse and an outrage against the prevailing sentiment in those counties and communities where the sale of such liquors is prohibited by law; and we hereby express our condemnation of the conduct of the American Express Company in engaging in this nefarious business, and on the other hand we most heartily commend the Southern Express Company for their refusal to convey and deliver such goods.

Resolved, further, That we commend the Hon. John Sharp Williams and Hon. D. G. Humphries, Congressmen, of this State for their efforts to have the inter-state commerce law so modified as to make it possible positively to prohibit the shipping of "C. O. D." liquors into states or sections of states where the sale of such liquors is prohibited by law, and that we urge our Congressmen to co-operate with them in this matter.

Resolved, further, That for the relief of our smaller towns where the licensed saloon still exists, especially our coast towns, this Conference memorialize the State Legislature to increase the privilege license to the sum of $5,000, and that the Secretary of this Conference be requested to lay this memorial before the Legislature at its next sitting.

J. R. JONES. Chairman.
H. J. MOORE, Secretary.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance, feeling that the duty of keeping the Sabbath day holy ought to be placed on high moral grounds, where it rightfully belongs, would call the attention of the Conference to the fact that to violate this law is an immorality just as much as to violate the law which says: "Thou shalt not steal."

We are very much gratified at the report which comes to us here and there of a growing respect for the Sabbath, indicating a developing conscience on the subject.

After a somewhat limited review of the literature furnished by the Sunday League of America, we express the conviction that this is one of the most important movements of the age and worthy of our heartiest sympathy.

The International Sunday Rest Congress held in St. Louis last year made a new literature on this subject, which is now being published, and circulated by the said League. We also suggest that the members of this Conference will find it valuable and worthy of patronage. We heartily commend the work done by the Sunday League of America in all parts of our great country.

Gladly do we welcome the coming and greatly appreciate the address of Dr. Edward Thompson, delivered during our present session, and here notify him that our latch string hangs always out to him, and we bid him welcome to all our privileges.

So important does our Church consider the work of the League that it has embodied in the duties of the Bishop, that of appointing a preacher to its work as occasion may demand. Inasmuch as this is true, we endorse the proposition of the said League to set aside the week following Easter as "Lord's Day Week," and trust our pastors will all preach on the subject, and ask the people to pray for and teach their children their obligation to observe the Lord's day.

Again, we exhort all professing Christians, and especially our preachers, to guard against any infringement upon the most conscientious observance of this sacred day.

As these facts are before us, be it

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, pledge ourselves to a more earnest effort to develop the growing conscience mentioned, and to a greater consistency on our own part.

A. G. NORRELL, President.
G. H. GALLOWAY, Secretary.

The report of the Joint Board of Finance was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Joint Board of Finance would report as follows:

We note with pleasure the degree of success which has attended the efforts that have been made to raise an Endowment Fund for Superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers, as ordered by the last General Conference, as indicated by a paper from the Trustees of said fund, which was referred to us.

We, as last year, recommend this fund to the pastors of the several charges in the bounds of our Conference, and again recommend that they take a collection on Easter Sunday for the enlargement of this fund, forwarding the amount thus raised to Rev. John R. Stewart, Treasurer, Nashville, Tenn.

We recommend that the Presiding Elders be required to collect the Bishops' fund.

We recommend the continuance of the quarterly payment plan, and request that the first Sunday in March, or as near thereto as practicable, be observed as Veterans' Day, and that the collection be taken on its merits.

Brother J. C. Cavett resigned his position as Secretary of the Board and T. J. O'Neil was elected to take his place.

We request any member of this Conference who comes into possession of information of distressed circumstances of any claimant on this Board, that he bring it before the Board, and not present it to the open session of the Conference.

The number of claimants on our Board is being increased and our needs to meet their claims will require full payment of the present assessment and we urge the pastors to press the claims, and make prompt remittances to the treasurer of our Board.

H. MELLARD, Chairman,
T. J. O'Neil, Secretary.

Question Twenty-Nine was called: "What amount is necessary for the superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of preachers?" Answer: $7600.00.

Question Thirty was called: "What has been collected on the foregoing account, and how has it been applied?" Answer: $7112.75. (For application see Report.)

P. D. Hardin, Treasurer, distributed the funds of the Joint Board of Finance.

The following were introduced to the Conference: Bishop E. Cottrell, of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, and E. W. Moseley, Presiding Elder in the West Tennessee Conference of the same Church.

Dr. W. R. Lambuth, Missionary Secretary, spoke briefly relative to the progress of Mission work.

Bishop Cottrell addressed the Conference, and at the conclusion of his speech an offering amounting to $200.00 was made for the benefit of the Industrial School at Holly Springs, Miss.

On motion the time was extended to hear the address of Bishop Cottrell.

A memorial to the General Conference signed by A. F. Watkins and P. D. Hardin, was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Memorials.

The announcements for Sunday services were read as follows:

FIFTH DAY—Sunday Afternoon.

MEMORIAL SESSION.

GLOSTER, MISS., DEC. 17, 1905.

The Conference was called to order at 3 P. M., E. H. Mounger presiding by request of Bishop Galloway.

The religious exercises were conducted by W. C. Black, who read a part of the Twenty-second chapter of Revelation, announced Hymn No. 653, and called on D. P. Bradford to lead in prayer.

Question Nineteen was called: "What preachers have died during the past year?" Answer: C. D. Cecil, L. P. Meador, E. F. Eager, T. W. Brown and B. S. Rayner.

C. A. Powell read the Memoir of Curtis D. Cecil, announcing that the Memoir had been prepared by A. F. Watkins.

The Memoir of L. P. Meador was read by D. C. Langford.

John A. B. Jones read the Memoir of T. W. Brown.

The Memoir of E. F. Edgar was read by E. D. Phillips.

D. P. Bradford read the Memoir of B. S. Rayner.

The following paid loving and reverent tribute to the memory of their departed comrades: C. A. Powell, J. T. Nicholson, W. M. Sullivan, J. J. Golden, D. P. Bradford, Irvin Miller, D. C. Langford, H. M. DuBose, N. B. Young.

On motion, the Memoirs were adopted as follows:

REV. BENTON SOLOMON RAYNER.

The subject of this sketch was born of godly parents near Hickory, in Newton county, Miss., Jan. 27, 1850. He was converted and joined the church at Hickman Chapel, three miles southwest of Hickory, in 1871. This was not during a revival, but on an ordinary occasion. His conversion was clear, conscious and satisfactory. His faith in the power of the blood of the atonement to cleanse from all sin never wavered after his espousal to God. He stated to a friend and brother minister some time before his departure that, while he never doubted his conversion from the time it occurred, he did not receive the witness of the Spirit in its fullness until some time afterwards. Yielding himself utterly to God, and laying hold upon Christ with a perfect faith, he was filled with the Holy Spirit. His heart being purified, his love was made perfect. From that time he professed to enjoy the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ, and we all know that his life was beautifully consistent with this profession.

The records of the old Garlandsville circuit show that he served as class leader of his church in 1872, as steward in 1873-76, and that he was licensed to exhort in 1874. In 1875 he was licensed to preach, and was admitted on trial in the Mississippi Conference in 1876. Two years after this (in 1878) he was ordained a deacon, and in 1880 he was ordained an elder.

Brother Rayner's early education was somewhat limited, such as was given in the common schools of his time. After he was moved by the Holy Ghost to preach the gospel he applied himself diligently, and developed into a strong, useful preacher. He was in the regular pastorate nearly thirty years, and rendered faithful services in every charge to which he was assigned. He was not only a clear, forceful preacher, but a diligent, faithful pastor, and a wise administrator. As a rule, he carried full reports to Conference, and often reported an overplus on the collections ordered by the General Conference. Many souls were converted under his ministry. Sometimes he would report more than a hundred received into the church in one year. Ten young men were licensed to preach under his administration. He was a parsonage builder. More than $10,000.00 worth of parsonages in our Conference evidence his zeal and success in this work, and yet he left himself without a home.

Brother Rayner was for four years Presiding Elder of the Seashore District. He found in that district 2,700 members, and left 4,800, with much of the territory transferred to other districts. In every field to which he was appointed he labored hard and succeeded well.

During his first year on the Seashore District, he traveled 5,000 miles, mostly by private conveyance; held 68 quarterly meetings and preached 285 sermons, besides holding other services. It was characteristic of him never to consult his own comfort, seek his own advancement in position among his brethren, or neglect any known duty. A more faithful man we have not had among us.

The following beautiful and just tribute to his memory is from the pen of one who knew him long and well:

"Brother Rayner was a strong man—strong physically, strong intellectually, strong in will-power, strong in his manly integrity, strong in his love for the church, strong in his faith in God.

"I have seen him in the prime of manhood, quietly bearing a heavy burden, quietly doing the full work of a strong man. I have seen him at the suggestion of what he deemed an infringement on his rights, quietly and forcibly assert himself, and maintain his rights. I have seen him with strength wasted by disease, quietly submit to a painful operation upon that most delicate organ, the eye, without the use of any other anaesthetic than an injection of cocaine, and though the firm grip on the arms of the chair indicated something of the agony that he suffered, there was no groan, nor weakening of the strong hold of the will upon the anguished body. I have seen him nearly blind, lying on his bed in quiet strength, awaiting the end that was inevitable.

"He was a gentle man, with all his strength and the massiveness of frame and feature. His voice was soft and low, and his spirit was as gentle as his voice. He was a man of judicial poise, of sound judgment, and his counsel was often sought by his brethren.

"As a preacher, he was clear, scriptural and effective. The quiet confidence with which he spoke deepened the impression of the divine truth upon the minds of those who heard. As a man he was brotherly and kind. In his home his hospitality was genuine and earnest; in my home he was appreciative and considerate. It was a privilege to know him."

For some time before his death his health had been poor, but as the outward man perished the inward man was renewed day by day. He loved life, and was glad to be permitted to preach the gospel; he was an affectionate husband, and an indulgent father; but death had no terrors for him.

His faith was strong, his hope was bright, and his love was perfect. He had full assurance of the presence of his Lord, and of everlasting life in heaven. He fell asleep in Jesus in the parsonage of the Madison Circuit of which he was the pastor,

Sunday morning, September the 3d, 1905, at 4:30 o'clock. He was buried at Hickory, Miss., near the place of his birth. He leaves a wife, to whom he was happily married in his youth, August 21, 1870, and six children, two of whom are yet small. A good and useful man has gone to his reward.

W. B. LEWIS.

CURTIS DRAKE CECIL.

Of those who lived in Natchez a half century ago, there were few who did not know the old house on Pine Street, high up on the terrace, where "Aunt Cecil" lived. Approached from the east, along the track of the old rail road, it was the most conspicuous house in sight. But it was known best of all because of her who dwelt therein. She was known by all, revered by all, loved by all, a saint of the Lord, whose life was filled with love and good works.

In this home, and the son of this mother, was born August 28, 1833, Curtis Drake Cecil, whose name, combining as it did, the names of William M. Curtis and Benjamin M. Drake, gave evidence of his mother's love for and loyalty to the Methodist preachers of her day. He was reared by a widowed mother, his father having died during the infancy of the child.

Of his earlier years this writer knows but little, and that little tells of waywardness and sin, as the wayward son of a good mother wandered far from God. To those who knew him he seemed hopelessly given over to sin; to his mother he was, indeed, given over to sin, but not hopelessly. When she lay dying the watchers thought her mind wandered as she said aloud: "My son shall yet be a Christian and a Methodist preacher."

After long years of weeping and waiting and agonizing prayer, the blessed assurance came; but her eyes did not see the realization of her trust. Its fulfillment was deferred beyond the limit of her earthly life.

It was in August, 1867, in a meeting held in Natchez by Dr. W. E. M. Linfield, that Curtis Cecil and his wife were converted and joined the church. In 1870 he was a teacher in the Methodist Sunday School in Natchez, and the writer of this paper was one of his boys. The memory of an affectionate child has ever retained the impression of this best of teachers. He was earnest, clear, faithful and very much beloved by the members of his class.

In 1874 he was licensed to preach, and his sainted mother's prayer was answered and her faith vindicated. Shortly after receiving license to preach he began a series of prayer-meeting lectures, on the Evidences of Christianity, which, though he claimed for them no originality in thought or statement, indicated a wide range of thoughtful reading and attracted considerable attention.

At the session of the Mississippi Conference, which met in Hazlehurst, December 16, 1874, Brother Cecil was received on trial, and sent to the Meadville Circuit. In 1875 he was sent to the Bayou Sara Circuit, where he spent four years. In 1876 he was admitted into full connection. The Conference met this year in Natchez, and here in the home of his childhood he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Wightman. In 1878 he was ordained Elder by Bishop Paine. In 1879 he was appointed to the Sharon Circuit, with Martin Anding Bell as his junior preacher, and in 1880 was returned to Sharon.

The Louisiana Parishes was the field of his labors the next two years, his appointment in 1881 being the East Baton Rouge Circuit; and in 1882, Pipkin's Chapel and Port Hudson. Two years were then spent on the Wilkinson Circuit, two at Percy Creek, and four at Wilson. In 1891 he traveled the St. Helena Circuit, and in 1892 was at Beauregard.

Three years were given to West Mississippi—two in Warren county (1894 and 1895) and one in Anguilla. Four years were then spent in East Mississippi—one at Heidelberg, one in Mathersville, one in DeKalb, and one in Binnsville, and then he was returned to the scenes of his earlier ministry, serving the Percy Creek charge for the four years, 1901-1904.

The itinerant life was ended. On Dec. 12, 1904, at the Conference at Gulfport he was granted the Superannuate Relation. He had entered the Conference late in life, and did so with the anxious feeling that the time was far spent; but nearly the span of a human life God gave him in the ministry. Then the little wearied body, worn out in the service of the Master, was laid to rest. He ceased, at once, to labor and to live, departing this life December 24, 1904, near Centerville, Mississippi.

In person, Brother Cecil was small, quick of movement, with piercing black eyes, and full beard, dark at first, then gray. His manner of speech, like his movements, was quick, and a general appearance of alertness marked him. His voice was low, and his words few and simple, and to the point.

In spirit he was gentle and unassuming; modest to the point of timidity, hiding all of self, whether its joys or sorrows; very kind and gracious in his attitude to his brethren; and impressing those about him as one who possessed the secret of quiet strength.

One who knew him, perhaps, more intimately than any other living man, said of him: "While he rejoiced in the pardon of God, he never forgave himself for the sins of his youth and young manhood. I never heard him speak evil of his brethren of the ministry. He envied not. He was not jealous."

His appointments were never prominent; they were often poor and hard; but he received them unmurmuringly, and with the appearance not of one who controls the spirit of resentment, but of one who knew no such spirit. To him it was joy enough to have a place to work.

As a preacher he was strong, thoughtful, spiritual, practical. He was a devout and thoughtful student of the Word of God; was well versed in the doctrines of his church, and could not have been other than an instructive and helpful preacher. One who sustained to him the relation of presiding elder said of him; "He was a strong, practical preacher. He was loyal to the Church, and to those in authority. He was exceedingly conscientious about bringing up full financial reports from his charge. He was a timid man; but his conviction of duty, and his vivid sense of the grace of God gave him nerve to overcome his natural timidity." And added: "I have never known a truer man."

Of him one who loved him writes: "He possessed the crowning grace of charity in its scriptural sense. He was modest and unassuming almost to a fault, seeming almost afraid to mention himself. He had many trials, but he always realized that they were tempered by the loving mercy of God. To preach—to hold up before men the crucified Christ—seemed his very life."

Our brother was married three times. The wife of his youth died some years after he entered the Conference. He was afterward married to Miss Maggie Beale, of Madison County. Miss Beale will be remembered by the older readers of the New Orleans Christian Advocate as "Invalid," a frequent contributor to its columns. She lived only a short while after their marriage. His last wife was Miss Mary Irene Fauver, of Clinton, La. She and two little sons, Curtis Drake and Paul Gayden, survive him to cherish the memory of husband and father.

He spoke of his death as his "going away." His was the faith of Paul, and his Paul's joyous anticipation.

A sinner saved by grace; a saint who adorned the profession of the gospel of Christ! "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his."

A. F. WATKINS.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 26, 1905.

THOMAS WALTHALL BROWN.

Thomas Walthall Brown, son of Jesse and Elizabeth Hamilton Brown, nee Burton, was born July 8, 1827, near Whitestown, Wilkinson county, Mississippi.

From the place of his birth his parents removed to the Pleasant Grove plantation, six miles northeast of Woodville. In this celebrated Pleasant Grove home he was reared in comfort, luxury, and the peculiar and ensnaring environments of one born heir to great wealth.

He was favored with all the advantages to secure as thorough an education as the best teachers, scholars and money could provide. He graduated in a class of twelve from Centenary College, Jackson, Louisiana, in 1850, with the honor of salutatorian of his class.

While a student of Centenary College—I believe the year he graduated—he was persuaded by the earnest pleas of his room-mate, Albert Cage, to seek seclusion in the grove near the College, and there engage in fervent prayer for salvation. Here these two students found a Béthel. God honored the altar and accepted the sacrifice.

While Cage exhorted and prayed, Brown, with characteristic honesty and resolute purpose, made an unreserved surrender to the Lord of lords and King of kings, and accepted Jesus Christ as his present and all sufficient Savior from sin.

Multitudes have heard Brother Tom Brown rejoice in what he called “the glorious experience of that day when a pious student led me to Christ,” and some of us know of the sympathetic and convincing evidence he gave his room-mate then and there “that day” of positive assurance that “my sins are all forgiven.”

The demonstrated conversion and the call to the work of a Methodist itinerant preacher of Thomas W. Brown was the turning of an hereditary tide, much of which had run for generations in the very opposite direction.

To resist temptation incident to such circumstances, nothing could be more essential than a bright, well-defined epoch-making Christian experience. This he had, and to the last moment of a long life it constituted the staple of his religious character.

A short time before he died, conscious the end was near, he gave this assuring declaration: “No fact is more precious to me than the consciousness of forgiven sins.”

The Mississippi Conference in Clinton, Louisiana, December 1851, admitted Thomas W. Brown on trial with thirteen others. He was appointed to Washington Circuit in 1852.

July 20, 1852, he and Miss Mary Parmelia Smith, of Cazenovia, Madison county, New York, were married. To them were born five sons and seven daughters. Two sons and six daughters survive him. One of the sons, J. Wilson Brown, is now a member of the Mississippi Conference, and the other, Paul Marvin Brown, of the Louisiana Conference.

In 1853 he served Princeton Circuit. He was admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon December, 1853, Conference, Canton, Mississippi, and appointed to Wilkinson Circuit.

In 1855 he served Kingston and the colored Mission. At Conference in Vicksburg December, 1855, he was ordained Elder, and appointed to Kingston and colored Mission for 1856. 1857—Pinckneyville and Barrows. 1858—Bayou Sara and Barrows. 1859—Bayou Sara and Barrows. 1860—Jackson, Louisiana. 1861—East Feliciana, junior preacher with Joseph Nicholson. 1862—Laurel Hill. 1863—Wilkinson Circuit. 1864—Wilkinson. 1865—Kingston. 1866—Percy Creek and colored Mission. 1867—Woodville and colored circuit.

At the Conference at Natchez in December, 1867, he was located at his own request. He was readmitted December, 1878, and appointed to Wilkinson Circuit.

During the following twenty years he continued in the active work of an itinerant preacher, serving Wilkinson 1879 and 1880; North Wilkinson 1881; Wilkinson 1882 and 1883; Pipkin's Chapel and Port Hudson 1884; Woodville Female Seminary 1885 and 1886; Woodville Circuit 1887; Percy Creek 1888 and 1889; Bayou Sara 1890 and 1891; Covington 1892; Mayersville 1893, 1894 and 1895; Ocean Springs and Biloxi 1896; Gulfport Mission 1897; Ocean Springs and Scranton 1898.

The Conference of 1898 placed his name on the roll of the Superannuated. He loved dearer than life to work for the salvation of souls; he, therefore, continued abundant in labors. His services were much in demand, as is evidenced by the fact that there was scarce a year of the eleven he was reported a local preacher that he was not employed as a supply. And while superannuated, his presence, sermons, exhortations and prayers were regarded as benedictions.

He was in charge of East Feliciana Academy in Jackson, Louisiana; taught a school for boys and girls at his home Pleasant Grove, for years; was president of Edward McGehee College in Woodville, Mississippi, and was superintendent of education in Wilkinson county, Mississippi. During these years of most arduous labors six days each week, he preached almost every Sunday.

Thomas Walthall Brown was strikingly winning in his manner, consistently devout, cheerful, a man with a clear head, a warm heart, a sunny nature, with the spirit of a student and the courtly grace of a Christian gentleman. A man of unusual mental vigor, a constant, laborious student, fond of analytical investigation. He was great in his goodness, and good in his greatness, modest, pure, self-sacrificing.

Few men of equal merit and ability have led such a quiet prayerful and useful life. After having preached the Gospel for fifty-four years, at the home of his son-in-law, George H. Peets, M. D., of Percy Creek, Wilkinson county, Mississippi, at 7:45 P. M., on May 31, 1905, he immediately and painlessly fell asleep in Jesus.

J. A. B. JONES.

REV. L. P. MEADOR.

L. P. Meador, son of Ira and Elizabeth Meador, was born in Dallas county, Ala., April 28, 1835. He moved with his father to Mississippi, and settled in Scott county in January, 1848. In August, 1857, he was married to Salina E. Sigrest. August 20, 1860, they both made a profession of religion, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

In 1861 Brother Meador was licensed to preach at Hillsboro, Miss., H. H. Montgomery, Presiding Elder. From that time till his death, March 14, 1905, with the exception of two years, he was under the appointment of the Conference regularly. "He was a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost and much people were added to the Lord."

I find in a brief autobiography that on his first work, Walnut Grove Circuit, he received ninety-six into the church. His ministry was a fruitful one to the end.

For months past he declined in strength rapidly. When stricken with his last illness, it was apparent from the very first that everything was against his recovery.

In the early hours of March 14, he escaped the zone of the variables and entered that of the calms. His triumphant death was a fitting sequel to the cleanly and holy life he lived. Here, where he was probably known better than anywhere else, his name is revered by all, and his memory is a benediction. On the afternoon of March 14, 1905, he was buried from the Main Street Church, the service being conducted by Rev. R. Selby, Rev. T. L. Mellen and the writer.

"As he was my friend, I weep for him." I loved him as I have rarely loved a man. The difference in our years seemed not to have occurred to me till he had ascended. There lived no truer, manlier man than he.

J. E. CARPENTER.

REV. EDWIN FUGATE EDGAR.

Rev. Edwin Fugate Edgar passed peacefully away from the itinerant's home at Enterprise, Miss., Thursday morning, January 5, 1905.

He was born in Sunflower county, Miss., January 1, 1846. While an infant his parents moved to Yazoo county, where he grew to manhood. When quite young he entered the Confederate Army and served under General Forrest. He was worthy to be associated with the brave Forrest. After the war he returned home and engaged in farming and teaching.

He was married three times. First to Miss Lucy Perkins; second to Miss Bettie Carter, both of Yazoo county—most estimable Christian ladies.

His last marriage was to Mrs. A. L. Norwood, daughter of Rev. James A. Godfrey, late of the Mississippi Conference. This marriage occurred at Meridian, Miss., May 2, 1882, at the home of Rev. James A. Godfrey, then presiding elder of the Meridian District. He was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference in Meridian Dec. 17, 1879, Bishop Kavanaugh presiding. At that time the Mississippi Conference included the Florida parishes of Louisiana.

His first appointment was Livingston mission, which he served three years. He served Liberty Circuit three years; Shubuta, three; Waynesboro, three; Camden, four; Magnolia, two; Barlow, four; Tylertown and Fernwood, one; Fernwood and Whitestown, three.

His last appointment was Enterprise and Stonewall. He magnified his work from the beginning. While serving the Livingston mission he made tracks worthy of Asbury, Jesse Lee, and Tobias Gibson.

The following picture lingers in memory: A tall, erect courteous gentleman, riding a handsome steed, traveling a lonely road, en route to his first appointment, possessing the faith of the early fathers.

Our brother's life was a success. If we count humility, regard for the welfare of others, unselfishness, simplicity of character, faith in God, devotion to duty, as elements of success, he was successful.

God was in his daily life, and the character of Jesus Christ the goal of his spiritual ambition.

The attribute of friendship was a prominent trait in Brother Edgar's character. How fortunate one was to call him "friend." His friendship was never conditioned on circumstances. It was like leaving the crowded streets and going into Shaw's Garden, where the many flowers with their pencils of beauty, suggest the luxury and wealth of nature; their fragrance suggest that in friendship we have the fragrance of life. It was a winter morning when we heard that he had left us. Then winter entered our soul, for we had lost a friend. We shall miss the touch of his generous spirit, and shall miss the expression of confidence which often fell from his lips. Brother Edgar was a good preacher. He possessed the power of smooth speech. In his preaching the "Savior of sinners" was his constant theme. His ministry of a quarter of a century brought a blessing to the churches he faithfully served. The vows which he took when he entered the Conference were ever sacred to him. One of the most attractive elements of his character was his cheerfulness of disposition. He looked on the bright side of life. To him every dispensation of Providence, however dark, had a silver lining. He believed that he was a child of God, and that he was constantly led "in green pastures and beside the still waters." Others caught the inspiration of his cheerfulness. It was a delight to be with him. Bright and careful of one's feelings, he impressed one as being the ideal of true manhood.

Shall I speak of his home life? To his companion he was the knight, the friend, the gentleman. She safely trusted him. The bridal roses never faded, and all along the journey they gave forth the same fragrance as on the day they plighted their faith to each other. How delicate were his attentions to the inmates of the home! The rose-bud, the gifts now and then, were not the only tokens of his love, for he would often express it in words. No wonder that the niece of his companion, who made her home with him, had such a love for him. He was a father to her; he delighted to make her happy. Were I called to write his epitaph, I would write, "He made home happy." How affectionately he regarded his step-son, Joseph E. Norwood. No father could say "Joe" with more tenderness. This affection was returned.

The beautiful home in Magnolia always had a gracious welcome for him, and he felt it was his home. It was fitting that "Joe should bring the body to his home before the last sacred rites were said, for in this home he was always loved and honored. His memory will always be precious. Edwin, the friend of our early ministry, I can almost hear you say: "Say not good-night, but in some brighter clime bid me good-morning." Lord Bacon, when dying, said, "Bury me in the church-yard near St. Albans; there my mother is buried."

In the cemetery in Magnolia they laid our brother to rest beside the grave of his daughter, who was so long an invalid, for they said "he loved her." Let the linden tree be planted over his resting place; let the flowers as fragrant as those of Brenta bloom there. The loved ones, friends, and the church will emulate his virtues and cherish his memory.

"Warm Summer sun,
Shine kindly here.
Warm southern wind,
Blow softly here.
Green sod above,
Lie light, lie light."

I. W. COOPER.

The Conference adjourned with the benediction by F. M. Williams.

SIXTH DAY.

GLOSTER, MISS., DEC. 18, 1905.

The Conference was called to order at 9 A. M., Bishop Galloway in the chair.

H. P. Lewis conducted the religious exercises, reading the one hundred and third Psalm, announcing Hymn "Rock of Ages," and leading in prayer.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

The minutes of Sunday afternoon Memorial session were read and approved.

Question Nine was called: "What traveling preachers are ordained deacons?" Bishop Galloway presented certificate of ordination as follows:

CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION.

GLOSTER, MISS., DEC. 18, 1905.

This is to certify that on Dec. 17, 1905, in the Methodist Church at Gloster, Miss., after the morning sermon, I ordained the following Deacons:

Traveling preachers: Osmond S. Lewis, Willie W. Perry, John W. Ward, William A. Hays, Osborne W. Bradley.

CHAS. B. GALLOWAY.

Question Eleven was called: "What local preachers are ordained deacons?" Answer: None.

Question Thirteen was called: "What traveling preachers are ordained elders?" Answer: None.

Question Fifteen was called: "What local preachers are ordained elders?" Answer: None.

Question Six was called: "Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" Answer: Bishop Galloway announced the transfer of James M. Massey, in Elders Orders from the North Mississippi Conference.

A resolution of fraternal good will for the colored M. E. Church in America, and of success for the educational effort of Bishop Cottrell was, on motion, adopted, as follows:

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING THE COLORED M. E. CHURCH.

Resolved, That we are profoundly sensible of the hearty good-will and Christian fellowship existing between the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America;

Resolved, further, That we heartily endorse the wise movement inaugurated, and the good work being done by Bishop Elias Cottrell in his efforts to build up and maintain a great Theological and Industrial College at Holly Springs, Miss., for the moral, industrial and religious improvement of the negro boys and girls in Mississippi and elsewhere. That we commend him, in the prosecution of this great and important work, to the favorable consideration of our Southern people; and furthermore,

That we present him and his cause to the Great Head of the Church for His blessings, and pledge to Bishop Cottrell our hearty co-operation and maternal support.

W. H. LAPRADE,
CHAS. W. CRISLER,
A. F. WATKINS.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was read and, on motion, adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Committee on the State of the Church begs leave to submit the following report:

We rejoice over the large number of accessions to our Church the present Conference year, especially the large number added on profession of faith, and the great number of revivals of religion reported by our pastors.

The Lord is doing great things for us, whereof we are glad. We believe He has greater things in store for us, for which let us earnestly pray.

We feel devoutly thankful to the Great Head of the Church for the increasing prosperity He is giving us, in all the interests of the Church within the bounds of our Conference.

Our ministers are becoming more and more consecrated, and are proving themselves to be worthy, Godly leaders of the flock; the membership is nobly holding up their hands, and they themselves becoming in many instances more consecrated to God, and are seeking higher attainments in the Divine life, and we believe are becoming more interested in the spiritual and material interests of our great Church than at any former period.

We fear, however, that there is danger of the material interests of the Church outstripping the spiritual, and we would, in the name of our Divine Master, utter a word of caution just here.

We desire also to offer a word of admonition to our members against dealing in cotton futures, dancing, theatre-going, attending card parties, making social visits on Sunday, riding on the trains, and attending base ball plays on the Sabbath day, and the many other forms of worldly amusements not named here, all of which we believe hinder our living near to God, and are sinful in His sight.

The Gospel of our Lord is doing a great work among the children of men, and its effects are being seen and felt, but we believe the indulgence in these things is hindering its progress in our midst, and is one of the reasons the spiritual progress of our Church is not keeping pace with its material progress.

We have fears that many of our members have not been soundly converted to God, and have never felt fully the witness of the Spirit that they are the children of God.

We feel hopeful, however, for the future; our ministers are being baptized with the Holy Ghost, and are receiving the blessings of God upon their labors.

Let us continue to be "constant in season and out of season," praying that God may "lead us beside the still waters, and cause us to lie down in the green pastures" of His love.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. SIMMONS, Chairman,
IRVIN MILLER, Secretary.

The report of the Bible Society Board was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

To the Bishops and Brethren of the Mississippi Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your Board begs leave to make the following report:

Our Conference paid last year the sum of $1203.00 to the American Bible Society. We have paid this year $1361.40 on an assessment of $1500.00. From the above we deduct $2.45 for expenses.

We regret that we are not able to do more in the support of this important institution, which has been the advance guard of our missionary host, in preparing the way for their glorious work. The needs of the Society are extreme. It has expended its reserve fund, and is threatened with indebtedness.

We recommend, therefore, that at an early date in the coming Conference year, special days be arranged so as to have the presence of Dr. Geo. D. French at as many of these meetings as possible. He has promised to visit our districts where he is wanted and can serve the best interests of the cause.

We believe that it would be to the best interest of the Society to change that part of the American Revised Version of the Bible which seems to encourage sectarianism.

We recommend that the collection be taken in the early part of the year and money sent at once to our Conference treasurer.

We recommend that the Assessment for the year 1906 be the same as last year, $1500.00, and apportioned as follows:

Meridian District	$225 00
Forest District	185 00
Seashore District	315 00
Jackson District	225 00
Brookhaven District	200 00
Natchez District	175 00
Vicksburg District	175 00

R. BRADLEY, President.

P. H. HOWSE, Secretary.

H. L. NORTON, Treasurer.

Report No. 2 of the Committee on Memorials was read and adopted seriatim, as follows:

REPORT NO. 2

COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

To the Memorials presented by Rev. A. D. Miller, relative to changes in the baptismal and marriage services your committee begs leave to report non-concurrence; but to the Memorial of Brother Miller relative to variety in our burial services, your Committee reports concurrence and presents the following Memorial for your consideration:

Memorial from the Mississippi Conference in Session at Gloster, Miss., December 18, 1905, to the General Conference.

We respectfully memorialize your body to direct that there be prepared and put into our Ritual a burial service specially suited to the burial of children.

While your Committee does not deem it advisable to concur in the Memorial presented by A. F. Watkins and P. D. Hardin, relative to a change in the basis of distributing the Conference fund, we recommend that the next General Conference be requested to consider the wisdom of changing the basis in the way the following Memorial suggests:

A MEMORIAL.

We respectfully memorialize the General Conference to consider the propriety of so changing the basis of the distribution of the funds raised for the care of our superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of our deceased preachers, that one-half of the amount, subject to distribution in each Annual Conference, be distributed to claimants on the basis of the term of service of the claimant, and the other half, as at present, upon the basis of the financial needs of the claimant.

A. F. WATKINS,
P. D. HARDIN.

In response to a Memorial from the Forest District Conference, the following is reported for your adoption:

Memorial from the Mississippi Conference in Session December 18, 1905, to the General Conference:

I. We respectfully memorialize the General Conference to strike out of paragraph 94 of the Discipline the words: "It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Church Conference to present his Church register and the records of Church Conferences to the third Quarterly Conference for inspection."

II. We also beg that a question be inserted in the order of business of the Quarterly Conference to be numbered 29, and which shall read: "Who are the Trustees of Church Property?(4)"

In response to the resolution presented by Rev. W. C. Black, T. L. Mellen and T. W. Adams, your Committee offers for your consideration the following:

Memorial from the Mississippi Conference in Session December 18, 1905, to the General Conference:

We ask that you so legislate that a Bishop may, on request of an Annual Conference, appoint one or more preachers to do evangelistic work within the bounds of the Conference, the salary of said evangelists to be fixed by the Joint Board of Finance; provided, that all money raised by or for said evangelists in excess of their salaries shall be turned over to the Joint Board of Finance for disbursement as that Board deems wise.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. LAPRADE, Chairman.

H. W. FEATHERSTUN, Sec.

The appeal of H. W. Featherstun from the decision of T. W. Adams, Presiding Elder of the Brookhaven District, was presented, and Bishop Galloway gave the following decision:

A P P E A L.

QUESTION OF LAW.

At the Brookhaven District Conference, this question was regularly presented to the Chair: "Is it lawful to elect a woman as a steward?"

To this the Presiding Elder in the chair answered: "It is not."

From this answer H. Walter Featherstun appealed to the Bishop presiding at the Annual Conference.

C. F. EMERY,
Sec. Dist. Conference.

The decision of the Presiding Elder is sustained.

CHAS. B. GALLOWAY.

December 18, 1905.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was read and, on motion, adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Dr. P. H. Whisner, Corresponding Secretary of the General Board of Church Extension, sends the following annual message:

"We are thankful to report that the payment for Church Extension by the forty annual Conferences of our Church in the home land for the fiscal year which closed March 31, 1905, amounted to $100,138.26, and six of the forty paid their assessments, in full, and that three of the six paid more than they were assessed.

"I am pleased also to note that our Foreign Mission Conferences which were assessed only $737.00, paid $1,667.75, which is more than twice as much as they were assessed.

"According to the Minutes of the annual Conferences for 1904, there are in our Foreign Mission Conferences 309 Societies, and only 130 churches, which shows 179 Societies without houses of worship. Of the 130 churches 61 have been aided by the General Board of Church Extension.

"Of the 15,199 churches we now own in the home and foreign field, 5954 have received aid from the Church Extension organization, and yet we have 2,897 congregations without houses of worship, which is nearly half as many as have been aided in the 23 years of the history of the Board.

"The assessment upon the Church at large for this work is $125,000.00. The assessment upon the Mississippi Conference is $3,325.00." Last year our Conference paid $3147.30, which is 94% of the assessment.

The collections from the several Districts for the year 1905, are as follows:

	ASSESSED	PAID	DEFICIT
Vicksburg District	$400 00	$325 00	$75 00
Seashore District	750 00	781 00
Jackson District	450 00	406 00	44 00
Meridian District	450 00	384 50	65 50
Brookhaven District	550 00	494 50	55 50
Natchez District	350 00	278 00	72 00
Forest District	450 00	507 00

Total from Districts.....$3176 00

Two Districts overpaid their assessments, Seashore reporting a surplus of $31, and Forest a surplus of $57.

We have a deficit of $149.00. Still the Conference pays $28.70 more than last year. May we not confidently hope for the full assessment next year?

The applications for aid which were before the Board were just as needy as those of any previous year. After careful and prayerful consideration the following distribution of our funds was made:

Glading	$185 00	Union	$ 50 00
Leakesville	100 00	McComb, Centenary	250 00
Pullys Chapel	25 00	Chunkey	100 00
Homewood	25 00	Macedonia	25 00
Freeny	30 00	Pleasant Ridge	50 00
Zion	70 00	Flora	50 00
Johnston	50 00	McNeil	150 00
Braxton	75 00	Bond	100 00
Wiggins	100 00	Coy	25 00
Indian Mission	50 00

Total distributed to churches.....$1510 00

To amt. overpaid Dr. Whisner 1904.....	21 35
To Printing Minutes	40 00
Expense account	25 05
To Dr. P. H. Whisner	1577 35
Amount in treasury	1 80

$3176 00

The Assessments upon the Districts for the year 1906 will be as follows:

Vicksburg District	$400 00	Seashore District	$750 00
Jackson District	450 00	Forest District	450 00
Meridian District	450 00	Brookhaven District	550 00
Natchez District	350 00

In ordering application blanks from the Conference Secretary, the brethren will please kindly indicate whether they wish the blank upon the General Board or the Conference Board.

THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

The Board requests that the Corresponding Secretary of the Mississippi Conference Home Mission Society will kindly send us an accurate annual statement of their work.

They have aided during the year two parsonages: Canton—$100.00. Laurel, 5th Ave.—$100.00

They have donated $100.00 to Rose Hill and $100.00 to Collins.

NOLAN B. HARMON,
Secretary.

C. W. Crisler read the following report of the Trustees of the Conference Endowment Fund:

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CONFERENCE ENDOWMENT FUND.

DEAR BRETHREN:—We, your Trustees of the Conference Endowment Fund, are pleased to submit the following annual report:

Amount invested in bonds and notes.....	$ 9980 00
Cash on hand	815 00
Total	$10795 00
Total last year	8525 05
Increase	$2269 95

We are able to report the following funds in bequests and gifts:

Van Houten bequest	$1000 00	Henderson bequest	$ 500 00
P. A. Johnston bequest.....	500 00	E. H. Easterling gift	500 00
Mrs. C. D. Cecil, gift	1000 00

The gift of Mrs. Cecil is on condition that the Trustees pay to her 7 1-2% interest during her life time.

We are glad to report that the funds entrusted to us have had a substantial growth during the year.

We are constrained to believe that there is no wiser or more benevolent investment of money possible than to this Endowment; hence, we urge the co-operation of our pastors and people in our efforts to increase this fund during the ensuing year.

On behalf of the Trustees,

CHAS. W. CRISLER,
Secretary.

The report of the Epworth League Board was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We have had before us the report of the General Secretary, Dr. H. M. DuBose, and are gratified at the facts therein set forth.

From it we learn of the far reaching effects of this divinely appointed organization in its development of the young life of our Church. More than three hundred thousand young people have been directly helped in their spiritual lives, and many of those who have given themselves for service in the foreign field during the past few years have come from the ranks of the Epworth League.

We report sixty-one Senior Leagues and sixteen Junior Leagues in the bounds of our Conference.

We urge upon our pastors the organization of Mission Study Classes in both the Senior and Junior Leagues as being of the utmost value for increasing missionary interest in the bounds of their pastoral charges.

We take pleasure in commending the Reading Course as being helpful and instructive, and we are glad to be able to report in this connection that more than fifty thousand volumes of wholesome literature have been put into the homes of our people throughout the Church through the medium of these Reading Courses. Your Board rejoices in the prosperity of the Epworth Era, our official organ, and note with pleasure its largely increased circulation.

We call attention to the fourth Annual Session of the Conference League to be held in McComb City, Miss., beginning at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, April 26, 1906, and to continue through the following Sunday. Also the Young People's Missionary Conference in June at Ashville, N. C., and the Seashore Epworth League Assembly at Biloxi, Miss.

We earnestly hope that as many of our pastors and young people as possibly can will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending at least one of these Conferences, and thus get a larger vision of privilege, and a new inspiration for service. Your Board has appointed Rev. H. W. Featherstun, D. D., as the representative from this Conference in the management of the Seashore Epworth League Assembly, and respectfully ask this Conference to confirm the same.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS B. CLIFFORD,

For the Board.

W. C. Black submitted a memorial relative to women as stewards, which was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Memorials.

Question Forty-five was called: "Where shall the next session of the Conference be held?" Invitations were extended by Laurel and Jackson, and the former was selected.

Resolutions of sympathy for the Russian Jews were read and adopted as follows:

SYMPATHY FOR THE JEWS IN RUSSIA.

WHEREAS, The whole Christian world has been greatly shocked and deeply stirred over the atrocities recently perpetrated upon the Jews in Russia, and

WHEREAS, The grieved wrongs and ills they are now suffering appeal to the pity and generosity of Christians everywhere, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Mississippi Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Gloster, Miss., Dec. 18, 1905, that we hereby express our heartfelt sympathy for these unfortunate members of the Hebrew race, and pray that the divine Father may grant unto them peace and safety.

Resolved, secondly, That we respectfully petition our beloved President, Theodore Roosevelt, to use his good offices in behalf of the Jews of Russia, and seek to bring about some mitigation of the ills they are now enduring.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference be hereby instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions to the President at Washington.

M. M. BLACK,
H. R. SINGLETON,
T. W. ADAMS.

The report of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Obviously the past year has been one of prosperity and progress in our Sunday School work. There has been a healthy growth in our numbers, and an increased circulation of our literature. Our pastors, presiding elders, superintendents and teachers are more and more making soul winning the uppermost aim, we are led to believe. Many pastors find the Sunday School their richest field, and therefore, they must keep in touch with the school as a whole, to make their influence felt in all parts of it; to be so familiar with the workings in every department as to be able to advise intelligently concerning its entire work. We beg all our Sunday School workers to heed the injunction of our beloved Dr. Atkins to make the Sunday School more and more conducive to spiritual ends. Where can we find a richer field for evangelistic work? To quote from our brother, J. R. Pepper: "Get the pastor fully alive to the rich mine he has in his Sunday School, and he becomes a live wire that stirs things from the time he reaches his appointment." The pastor is the most potential factor in this great work. The most hopeful sign is the increased interest of our presiding elders in the work.

Institutes are being held generally on the first day of the District Conferences. These are well attended by our best Sunday School workers, and thoroughly practical methods are presented, much to the profit of the work. We must have higher standards, and do our very best to work up to them. We cannot raise our standards of aggressive work by merely thinking about them, but we must put life and power into every effort. No inventor ever grew in fertility of successful ideas by confining himself to abstract thought, or paper and pencil theory. He must put his ideas into practical and successful operation if he would gain fresh and improving ideas. And this is our only hope in all our Sunday School efforts.

Our standards must be lifted, and it will take the lift of life to raise them. The Conference Sunday School Institute held in Jackson, Miss., in April was largely attended by workers from all over our Conference. Dr. Hamill and his accomplished wife were with us, and by their splendid work furnished enthusiasm enough to set many pastors and laymen to doing better work. Children's Day, Rally Day and Decision Day have been generally observed. The unparalleled record of the Memphis Conference this year should incite us to greater activity; every charge in the Conference has observed Children's Day the past year. Perhaps no such record as that has before been made in Southern Methodism.

Now, we urge that our rallying cry for the coming year shall be, "Children's Day observance in every charge and every Church in the Mississippi Conference." Why not? It can be done! It has been done elsewhere! It will be a splendid thing to do.

It is now a fixed policy of our Conference Sunday School Board to have an Anniversary service during each Annual Conference session. Some one has said, "The anniversary is the treasure station of enthusiasm," and that it is an excellent opportunity to get the work before all the pastors. It properly magnifies that arm of the service which has always yielded a wealthy harvest.

We close our report by offering the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, first, That a collection be taken in every charge, to be used as the Discipline directs.

Resolved, second, That we greatly deplore the fact that some of our pastors have heretofore either failed to hold Children's Day services or diverted the collections from the Sunday School Board to other channels in order to bring up their Conference collections. This is contrary to the Discipline and cripples the Board in the prosecution of its work throughout the bounds of the Conference.

Resolved, third, That all Children's Day money be sent to the treasurer of this Board immediately after the day is observed.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. PARKER, Chairman.

N. A. MOTT, Secretary.

The report of the Board of Missions was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Conference, M. E. Church, South:

DEAR BRETHREN:—It is with devout thankfulness we report to you the results of the year's labors in the department of the Church's work committed to us. Although the General Board of Missions had increased the assessment on our Conference for Foreign Missions, and in spite of the yellow fever and quarantine which, for over two months, paralyzed business, we report over two hundred dollars ($200) in excess on Foreign Missions, and our ability to pay in full all claims against the Domestic fund.

The assessment for the year just closing for Foreign Missions was $10,400, on which we paid $10,621.57, an increase of $618.57 over last year.

For Domestic Missions the assessment was $8,000.00, on which was paid $7859.03, an increase of $392.03, making a total for Missions on assessment of $18,480.60, which is an increase of $1010.39 over last year.

We are also gratified to learn that the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is still doing a good work, and sincerely trust the day is not far distant when not a charge in our Conference will be without this vital agency in the world's evangelization.

During the year through the efforts of the Conference Secretary of Missions, and the Chairman of the Board of Missions, Mr. Mott's book, "The Pastor and Modern Missions," was put into the hands of every pastor in the Conference. We feel sure the brethren of the Conference join the Board in expressing thanks to these brethren for securing for us this most timely book.

We most heartily commend the booklets published by the General Board of Missions at the close of the first session of the Missionary Training School, and wish to express our sincere hope that a set of these booklets may be placed in the hands of each Church official in our Conference during the year.

We would again express our conviction that "Go Forward" should be placed in every Methodist family in our Church. One of the imperative needs of the Church is information on this important subject, and in no other form can we give our people so much that is fresh and convincing, as will be found in this valuable paper.

Our Board has taken steps looking to the appointment of two representatives to the Missionary Training School this winter, and has elected our treasurer, Rev. W. L. Linfield, to represent us at the Conference of Representatives from the various Conference Mission Boards, which will meet in Nashville, Tennessee, the last week in February.

We recommend that the Wednesday night prayer-meeting following the first Sabbath in each month be devoted especially to the cause of Missions.

The Assessment for Foreign Missions for 1906 has been fixed at $11,000.00; and that for Domestic Missions at $8,600.00, and is divided among the Districts as follows:

	FOREIGN MISS.	DOMESTIC MISS.

W. L. LINFIELD, Treasurer.

Waynesboro, Miss., Dec. 18, 1905.

H. M. Ellis and R. L. Bennett were nominated and elected members of the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Orphans' Home.

Dr. J. D. Hammond, General Secretary of Education, was introduced and addressed the Conference concerning the educational interests of the Church.

The report No. 2 of the Board of Education was read, amended and adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 2 OF
 BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Your Board of Education begs leave to submit the following as their report No. 2:

The report of Dr. J. D. Hammond, General Secretary, was referred to us, and after giving it careful attention, we are gratified to note marked advance in everything relating to our educational interests during the last year. The material improvements amount to more than a million dollars. The enrollments of students marks an increase of 939.

Dr. Hammond makes a special plea in behalf of our work on the Pacific Coast, as well as among the negroes in the bounds of our Conference, to which plea we give our endorsement.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

We recognize this institution as worthy of our highest esteem and largest support. While we have given little in the way of material support, we believe, as beneficiaries in large measure, we should be aroused to our obligations in this particular.

Dr. W. F. Tillett's work during the Conference session, as Dean of the Theological Department, has given us high appreciation of this central institution in our educational system. In this connection, we note with pleasure that the Correspondence School is growing in popularity and that there have been thirty-two of the young men of our Conference who have taken the work of this school.

We recommend that the Secretary of this Board be authorized to confer with J. L. Cunningham, Director of the Correspondence School, relative to securing the extension lecture course for our next Annual Conference. We recommend the appointment of the following as students in the Vanderbilt University: R. P. Fikes, O. W. Bradley, and T. M. Bradley.

MILLSAPS COLLEGE.

On account of the hindrances incident to the quarantines, the College was not formally opened till the first of November. From the report before us, we learn that there is an enrollment of 220 students. We are assured that the attendance for this session promises to be larger than at any time in the history of this worthy institution. The faculty is composed of men who are well equipped for their responsible tasks, a number of them having studied in the best Universities of this country and Europe.

The institution is impressing itself more and more upon our Church and State. We respectfully urge our preachers to give their attention to the enlargement of the Endowment fund and increased patronage.

We recommend the re-appointment of James A. Moore to the Chair of Mathematics.

As the terms of office as Trustees, of W. C. Black, T. B. Holloman, R. W. Millsaps and J. S. Sexton expire with this present session of Conference, we recommend the election of the following as Trustees: W. C. Black, T. B. Holloman, R. W. Millsaps and H. S. Stevens.

WHITWORTH COLLEGE.

From the report before us we glean the following: The present session, considering the interruptions due to the quarantine restrictions, is the best for many years. The enrollment up to the present time has been 178. The teachers are Christian women and competent in their respective positions of trust. We commend this institution as worthy of our heartiest support and patronage.

We recommend the re-appointment of I. W. Cooper and H. G. Hawkins as President and Vice President. We also recommend the confirmation of the following as Trustees: N. B. Harmon, George H. Thompson, J. E. Carpenter and W. M. Williams.

PORT GIBSON FEMALE COLLEGE.

We note with pleasure the favorable reports that come to us from this honored institution, which has stood for more than sixty years for the education of our young women. Under the new administration there is promise of wider influence and larger results. The enrollment for the present session is 56.

We recommend the appointment of H. G. Hawkins and I. W. Cooper as President and Vice President.

EDWARD M'GEHEE COLLEGE.

This institution, under the patronage, though not the property of the Church, is well located, and has a good section of country from which to draw its patronage. The teachers are devoted to their work, and the pupils are favorably impressed by the influence of the Church. We commend the school to the patronage of the section in which it is situated.

MONTROSE HIGH SCHOOL.

The report of the Principal of this school indicates a steady growth, and we are glad to note the erection of a brick building at a cost of $6000.00. This gives the school better facilities for work than it has ever had. The enrollment for the present session is 188. The curriculum has been arranged with special reference to the course at Millsaps College.

We recommend the appointment of a committee of three who shall see to the securing of a new charter for this school, making it a Conference Training School correlative with Millsaps College, and entirely subject to the control of the Annual Conference, and that the charter shall provide that a majority of the trustees shall be Methodists.

We also recommend the appointment of W. W. Moore as Principal and Financial Agent.

SEA SHORE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL.

We have the report of this school, recently conveyed to our Church in the Seashore District. The school is well located, and promises the accomplishment of much good in the education of boys and girls in this section of the Conference.

PAINE AND LANE INSTITUTES.

We desire to declare again our interest in these institutions that have been aided from the beginning by our Church. We believe it to be incumbent upon us to give our material support to the schools that are dependent in great measure upon us.

E. M. F. COLLEGE MATTER.

The committee appointed by the Conference of 1903 and continued by the Conference of 1904, has had a report referred to this Board by the Conference. Relative to this matter, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That we accept the report of the committee appointed by this Conference to confer with the Board of Trustees of East Mississippi Female College property, and discharge said committee.

Resolved, second, That in view of the legal facts set forth in the report of the Committee, it is the sense of this Conference that no further action be taken in the matter.

J. H. HINTON'S PROPOSITION.

We recommend the appointment of a committee, consisting of A. F. Watkins, M. L. Burton and G. H. Thompson, with a view to the advisability of accepting the offer made by Mr. J. H. Hinton, of the school property at Lumberton, known as the Lamar Manual Training School and we recommend that they be given the power to act in the matter and report to our next Annual Conference.

Very respectfully,

R. W. MILLSAPS, Treasurer.

The following resolutions of thank to Dr. W. F. Tillett was offered by C. F. Emery and adopted by the Conference:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS TO DR. TILLETT.

Resolved, first, That having heard with great delight and profit the series of lectures delivered during the session of this Conference by Dr. W. F. Tillett, on the great doctrines of Methodism, we do hereby express our hearty appreciation of the same.

Resolved, second, That we request Dr. Tillett to publish these lectures in book form at his earliest convenience in order that their influence may be extended and perpetuated. Also that the Secretary of this Conference by requested to communicate this resolution to Dr. Tillett.

C. F. EMERY,
CHAS. W. CRISLER,
H. M. ELLIS,
JNO. W. CRISLER,
H. WALTER FEATHERSTUN.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted by the Conference by a rising vote:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, first, That we rejoice with the citizens of Gloster in the remarkable growth of the town which has made it possible for the first time in its history to entertain an Annual Conference, and that we do hereby express our grateful appreciation of their most generous hospitality.

Resolved, second, That we thank our kind host, Rev. C. N. Guice, for his unstinted efforts in looking after our entertainment.

Resolved, third, That we thank the congregations of our sister Churches for the use of their houses of worship, and the various railroads, the banks of Gloster, and the press for appreciated courtesies.

C. F. EMERY,
THOMAS B. CLIFFORD,
M. M. BLACK.

Rev. H. B. Perritt was called to the chancel, and in the presence of the Conference, took the ordination vows.

Report No. 3 of the Committee on Memorials was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 3 OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS.

Memorial from the Mississippi Conference to the General Conference:

We memorialize the General Conference that the law be so changed that a woman may be elected steward.

W. C. BLACK,
H. WALTER FEATHERSTUN.

In the above the Committee does not concur.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. LAPRADE, Chairman.

H. W. FEATHERSTUN, Secretary.

The Committee recommended by the Board of Education to secure a new charter for the Montrose High School was announced by the Bishop as follows: J. M. Morse, W. W. Moore and H. S. Stevens.

In connection with the announcing of this Committee, W. W. Moore, Principal of the Montrose High School, addressed the Conference in the interest of the institution.

A. F. Watkins and H. M. Ellis were elected editors of the Conference Journal.

M. M. Black was elected Conference Secretary of Missions.

Question Forty-six was called: "Where are the preachers stationed this year?" The Bishop, after a brief address, announced the following appointments for the ensuing conference year:
